June Building Value Hits $744,140

Drops from May But Stays Ahead of June a Year Ago

Buildings valuation in Palm Springs during June fell just short of the three-quarter million mark, with a total of $744,140, Jack Sanders, chief building inspector, reported this week.

It was the second consecutive month that the permits issued in a month were below the $1,000,000 mark, but the total for the year still remains far ahead of 1955, $6,936,534 to $5,212,543.

The figure for June of 1956 was about a half million dollars below the same period in 1955, when the total was $1,299,368, the largest single month in that year.

Dwellings again led in number of permits issued and in valuation, with 21 authorized for $336,500.

Other permits authorized were: Twelve dwelling additions and alterations, $52,050; five apartment additions, $131,000; three apartment additions, $4,000; 18 swimming pools, $75,000; four new commercial buildings, $64,000; seven commercial additions and alterations, $57,590; five trailer ramadas, $8,500; three hotel additions, $4,500; one warehouse addition, $8,000; one church addition, $3,000.

A total of 80 permits were issued during the month.

Farm Bureau Protests Plan for County Sales Tax

President Miles W. Kratka of the Riverside County Farm Bureau, has protested the proposed county sales tax in a letter to the Riverside County Board of Supervisors.

"The increasing pressure that is developing among representatives of incorporated cities in Riverside County in favor of a sales tax levy on rural residents," he said, "is a matter of considerable concern to the Board of Directors of the Riverside County Farm Bureau. Every resident of the unincorporated area of the county ought to be similarly disturbed about it and would be if they understood what the proposition is."

"The Farm Bureau is opposed to the imposition of a county-wide sales tax as presently authorized by law and as contemplated by the representatives of the various municipalities in the county, because it would be most unfair to the county's rural residents."

He urged that the directors of the Farm Bureau be heard whenever a county-wide sales tax is discussed officially with the supervisors.

He charged the proposal would levy the tax on just one group, the county's rural residents, and result in a tax levy by city governments that neither represent nor serve the rural residents.

Our school teacher at 1000 Palms claims she scours her pans by holding them up to the keyhole. The sand coming through in a stream polishes them better than she can by the usual method.

We get used to it being windy. Why, we get so's we can wake up at night and taste which way the wind's been blowing. Yes, we know from the taste that the wind's been blowing from Imperial Valley (Cow Country), out Blythe way, or over the hills from 29 Palms. Of course, there's more spice in them wild night winds coming from Palm Springs.

"Oliver, there is nothing in your Desert Rat Scrap Book but a lot of wind," writes Arthur Bliss Conkright, the Palm Springs Hillbilly. I wish to say there is nothing but wind in your tires, "Conky," you old buzzard — it makes ridin' kinda smooth like.

Cool-Headed Cat and Pal Take a Dip

Palm Springs has long boasted it has the most swimming pools per capita. Now, perhaps, it can boast of the most swimmers per capita.

For evidence, take a Palm Springs kitten named "Prince," who'll take a carefree plunge at drop of a hat, eschewing such normal cat pursuits as chasing birds and climbing trees. He is owned by Gayle Thompson, commercial photographer who has used his shutter to record the phenomenon for posterity and all cynics.

Prince was fearless of water almost from birth. Now he regularly swims the length of the 30 foot pool, climbs calmly out and waits to be dried. He will not dive into the pool, nor will he get into the pool by himself, but resists being put into it.

The Thompson's granddaughter, Tamara Tippet, is Prince's swimming companion. They are frequently seen cutting through the water from one end of the pool to the other. The girl takes the cat from the shallow end of the pool and gently puts him into the water. Prince balks only at getting his head wet.

Tamara was the one who discovered Prince's aquatic penchant. One day she called her grandparents at his photo studio

Wild Pursuit Ends at Tree, Quarry Gone

Chase Starts With Spotting of Suspect in Market Robbery

Armed with an arrest warrant, Palm Springs police are seeking Willie Nelson Davis, Negro bandit suspect, who Saturday night maneuvered a pursuing police car into a crash with a tree and escaped.

The 55-year-old Davis, who has spent about 28 years of his life in jail and had just completed a three-month term for a theft at the Desert Car Wash, led Sgt. Dale Thompson on a wild chase through the maze of unnamed streets on the Indian reservation.

The Negro first smashed the side of Thompson's police car by waylaying him on a side street, after which Thompson sought to intercept the now-distant Negro's car by cutting through a back yard. His short-cut was halted when his car crashed into a low-hanging limb.

Davis, whose auto by then had stalled, abandoned it and fled on foot.

POLICE SGT. ROBERT White said today Davis' car had yielded important evidence and confirmed suspicions that Davis was the man wanted for the theft Friday of more than $100 in checks and cash from Joseph Sullivan's Market on South Palm Canyon Drive.

Sgt. White, who has been heading the investigation since last Friday morning, Saturday got a lead and went over the route Davis reportedly had taken after taking the money from the grocery.

In a clump of bushes in the desert about 500 yards from the suspect's home, he found the stolen cash box, its checks and cash gone.

ABOUT 10 p.m. Saturday night police got a tip that Willie was in town. Sgt. Thompson went to the suspect's home at 344 South Via Miraleste, and saw the suspect's car parked in the driveway, but as Thompson drove up, Davis roared past him, and the chase was on.

Following a cloud of dust left by the lightless car, Thompson broke out of the dust at El Segundo and, realizing he had passed the suspect backed his car into the path of the other.

Davis, swerved to the edge of the road, whizzed around the corner, hit the left rear bumper of the police car and headed in the opposite direction on El Segundo. Thompson turned around and resumed the chase.

Speeding through the narrow streets and around buildings, Thompson continued in hot pursuit of the suspect until Davis abandoned his car and vanished in the dark.

IN THE CAR Thompson and White found $936 in checks taken from the market.

Thompson said there were two other men in the car at the time of the chase, Fay Allen, 49, and Willie Martin, Jr., 23, both of Los Angeles, and they were taken into custody by police and questioned.

Sgt. White said the two men had no knowledge of the robbery, and told officers they had been picked up in Los Angeles by Willie Davis and brought to Palm Springs.

POLICE SAID that Davis had purchased the car in India after the theft of money from the store and driven to Los Angeles. In this incident Davis followed the pattern that was responsible for his apprehension following the theft of the Desert Car Wash some three and a half months ago. He took the money stolen there and bought a car from a local automobile dealer.

Davis has a record and by his own admission has spent a total of 28 years in jail. Police said his record dates back to 1922 and includes such offenses as malicious shooting, assault, burglary, grand theft and petty theft.

The two men who were with Davis were released by police when it was determined that they had nothing to do with the crime.

SP Modernizes More Trackage

Conversion of another 114 miles of its Southern California track to ultra-modern centralized traffic control operation has been completed, Southern Pacific announced today. Work began last October on the project, which extends from west of Indio to Yuma, Ariz.

The two-way traffic control system, which cost the railroad almost $7 million to install, was put into operation last Friday. Southern Pacific estimates it will increase traffic capacity on its busy single-track main by as much as 75 per cent.

Under the system known as CTC two-way traffic is possible on single track.

Mayor Appoints Seven Persons to Four City Groups

Mayor Florian Boyd made appointments at the last council meeting, including the reappointment of Francis Crocker and Melba Bennett to the library board, whose terms started July 1. To the board of Parks and Recreation he appointed Ruth Hardy and John Wood, whose terms started July 2; and to the off-street parking committee, Councilman Jerry Nathanson.

Taking the recommendation of the Welfare and Friendly Aid Association he appointed Mrs. Charles H. McFarland and Mrs. John C. Wagoner to succeed Marjorie P. McKenzie and Minette Haber for terms commencing July 1.

All appointments are approved by the city council.

Finds His Coffee Crop is Weak

Even a millionaire sportsman like Bob Howard, of Palm Springs, Howard Manor, has his worries. Just two years ago Howard set out to beat the high price of coffee then prevailing by importing some coffee plants around his desert hostelry. He even took instructions on picking, curing and roasting the beans. The crop he expected this summer was to be his insurance against coffee prices going skyward again.

Now with coffee back in the luxury brackets, Howard is questioning his luck as a coffee planter. His trees have plenty of foliage, but nary a berry.

Since it takes a coffee tree one full year to produce coffee berries, Bob is looking forward to 1957 for his first crop.

Ray Sorum Again Heads School Board

Haig Harris Named Clerk at Group's Installation Meeting

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held Monday at noon to install the new board member and elect officers for the coming year.

Ray Sorum was re-elected president of the board by a unanimous vote, and Haig Harris was elected clerk.

The meeting got underway with the swearing in of Arnold Rumwell, local attorney, who was elected to the Board of Education last May.

A question of legality arose when it was noticed that an error on his oath of office had him elected to a three-year term. In the original charter of the school district it calls for all members of the board to hold office for four years. The administration was directed by the board to look into the error which had apparently been made by the County Superintendent of Schools.

The only business before the board at Monday's session was the setting of meeting times for the coming year, and the appointing of a board member to act on the county committee.

It was agreed the board will meet on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month except July and August, when it will meet the second Thursday only.

Member Frank Muller was appointed to represent the board on the county committee for school district organization.

The next meeting of the Board of Education will be held at Francis Stevens school at 7:30 p.m., July 12.

Shift of Jobless Office Proposed To Protect Village Labor Supply

An effort to move the offices of the California State Unemployment office here, now located in City Hall at the airport, to a more accessible downtown spot is under way by the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, George Beebe Jr., member of the board and head of the Chamber's retail division, said today.

At a meeting of employers Monday it was decided to seek use of office space for the agency in the American Legion hall, which would be more centrally located, Beebe said. The American Legion was to be approached later on the proposal. Jasper Bonham, agency manager, was reported to favor the move.

PUC Aides Here Checking Up on Phone Progress

The engineering staff of the California Public Utilities Commission is keeping a close watch on progress by the local telephone companies, it was learned today following a visit here by two members of the PUC staff.

The engineers arrived in the Village last Tuesday, spent Wednesday in Indio checking Coachella Valley Home Telephone and Telegraph Company and returned here Thursday for further checking.

An interim relief directive was issued by the PUC in San Francisco last week, which ordered a rate cut in some of the areas, communities, plus a progressive construction program to keep up the area's needs.

The staff men also checked on the backlog of requests for upgraded service. Doak Davis, district manager, said that while there are many requests in the file, many have been taken care of.

The PUC men checked carefully the entire list of complaints that were voiced by the public during the hearings here and in Desert Hot Springs, and each case has been thoroughly looked into. Some deficiencies, they indicated, will be corrected under the projected schedule program of improvements.

Davis said yesterday that by the start of the season here there should be more trunk lines for long distance calls as well as additional facilities to connect the communities of this area.

Construction programs for California Water and Telephone Company, Coachella Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company will total $1,143,750 during 1956.

PUC has also ordered the establishment of extended service eliminating toll charges between Palm Springs and Palm Desert to be in effect not later than Oct. 1, 1957.

Banning Man Fined in Crash

Ernest J. Begin, Banning, was fined $250 plus $13 costs by Judicial District Judge Eugene Therleau Monday.

Begin was arrested Sunday when he was involved in an automobile collision with Quincy J. Welch of 316 North Palm Canyon Drive. The car Welch was driving is owned by Sol Alessandro of 245 South Indian Avenue.

City-Washington Parley on Lines Set for July 12

July 12 has been set as the date for what may be a showdown between the city and federal government over a boundary line in the Smoke Tree ranch area.

City Manager Peterson, City Councilman G. K. Sanborn and Public Works Director Frank Hamerslag will fly to Washington on July 11 for a meeting with the Bureau of Land Management of the Department of Interior. The outcome may now or subsequently determine the true lines of many home sites in the area.

The controversy centers over the accuracy of the common corner of Sections 23, 24, 25 and 26. The city says the federal survey, made in 1923 by the Land Management Bureau, is 60 feet too far east. It insists a survey by the Bureau of Indian Affairs in 1953 was correct in placing the bench mark 60 feet to the west.

Part of the group's expense to Washington is being paid by Smoke Tree Ranch, which stands to lose 60 feet along its western boundary if the 1923 survey is upheld.

Outside Planning Expert Sought

With the City Planning Commission falling behind the rapid growth of this community, the City Council intends to hire a planning consultant to prepare a master plan for the development and zoning of the Village.

The matter will be brought up before the Council at the next regular meeting at which time official sanction is scheduled.

Herman Ranes, Palm Springs Planning Director said the planning lag is not just a matter of expanding the planning department, but requires consideration of enlisting an outside consultant who would have nothing to do but work on the overall problem.

Problems facing the planning commission were discussed in a joint session of the Council and the commission at the Billmore Monday.

Another phase of the program which was discussed was what to do about the zoning development of Indian Avenue and Ramon Road. The council will ask the Commission to consider new zoning in these areas.

Herb Garden Called Good Adjunct To Outdoor Barbeque Area at Home

Barbecuing outdoors is a favorite leisure pastime today in California. Many Westerners eat their meals outdoors for many weeks during the summer, preparing various types of meats over barbecue braziers and pits.

Though these meats are prepared in a variety of ways—on skewers, racks or wrapped in foil in the coals—they all are usually seasoned with spices and herbs to make them more tasty. And these herbs can easily be grown in containers or in the garden bed near the barbecue area.

Herb gardens have a charm all their own. In the 16th and 17th century they were laid out in formal patterns, but today's gardeners can grow them informally in pots and containers, or rock gardens and border areas, says the California Association of Nurserymen. Garlic is probably the herb used most often in barbecuing. Botanically speaking, it's called allium sativum and it can be used on beef as well as in salads and mixed with butter on barbecue breads.

The fresh leaves of dill (anethum graveolens) are a delicious seasoning for lamb chops. Marjoram has long been a favorite with rich meats of all sorts. It grows in a wide variety of species, one of which is Oregano. And summer savory (satureja montana), mint (mentha), rosemary (rosmarinus officinalis) and sage (salvia officinalis) will all season a barbecued meat to perfection.

Herbs can be grown from seedlings and they will do well in average soil, preferably alkaline, in friable condition with manure worked into it.

Water as you would annuals and fertilize with an organic or chemical fertilizer if they don't do well. Trim them for better appearance. To dry for future use, cut the leaves just as the plants begin to bloom and dry in single layers in single layers in a warm, sun-free place until they're chip-dry. Strip the leaves and store them in closed containers. If you dry seeds for future use, they're ready when they turn brown or gray.

Add a chef's touch to your garden and barbecue meals by planting several of these herbs.

The dogs are trained for three months before the blind students arrive. They are then trained for one month with the blind who live at the training school during the month. The dogs, equipment, training, room and board are given free to the blind.

State Business Activity Rises To Record Peak

The preliminary adjusted index of business activity in California increased in April, 1956, to a record high of 202 per cent of the 1947-49 average, William A. Burkett, state superintendent of banks reported today. This is up three points over the revised March figure and up 11 per cent from the April, 1955 level.

During April, 1956, the purchasing power of the dollar, based on the preliminary wholesale price index, declined to the lowest level since November, 1951.

Bank debits in April, 1956 rose to 168 (1947-49=100) a rise of nine points over the preceding month and 19 points over April 1955.

Department store sales in April were 135 of the 1947-49 average, a three point increase over March 1956 and a 12 point increase over the 123 of April, 1955.

For the United States as a whole industrial production in April, 1956 was 142 per cent of the 1947-49 average, one point above the revised March, 1956 figure and six points over the April, 1955 amount.

Denies Africans Want Conversion Into Anything

WHITTIER — "Africa wants neither communism nor colonialism," said Dr. Ernest Kalibala, lecturer and author on Africa, at the closing session of the 22nd Whittier Institute of International Relations at the Whittier Women's Club.

Kalibala, a member of the United National Trusteeship Department from 1948-52, asserted that Africa saw communism and colonialism as equally tyrannical.

"Africa does not want to be converted to anything or integrated into anything. They want only the freedom to choose what they desire," said Kalibala. Born in Uganda, Africa, Kalibala received his Ph. D. from Harvard University in the United States.

Dr. Melville J. Herskovits, anthropologist at Northwestern University, gave the cultural background of the peoples of southern Africa and expressed the opinion that "it would be the Africans who decide what Africa wants, regardless of the degree to which Europe attempts to influence or mould the country."

"In southern Africa where there were 180,000 blacks and only 3,000 whites," Herskovits said, "it would be fallacious and dangerous to believe Africa's future lies in some kind of aping of Euro-American patterns of culture."

The Annual Institute of International Relations is sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee for the purpose of uniting world brotherhood and a broader understanding of world affairs.

C. V. Savings Hikes Interest

Directors of the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association have approved an interest rate increase to be paid on savings for the next six months, Bill Smith, president, announced today.

The new rate will be four per cent a year, applicable to funds on deposit on or before July 10, he said.

Says Compromise Heals Quarrels

PHILADELPHIA — "The inability to compromise in family squabbles is at the bottom of most domestic trouble," says Ralph Ormsby, executive director of the Family Service of Philadelphia.

For his verification, Ormsby looks to a survey of 4,551 cases handled last year by the Family Service, a Red Feather agency.

He says a good rule to observe when family differences come up is to "think more in terms of 'we' and less often of 'I'."

"Quite often," says he, "difficulties also come up when a family moves to a new neighborhood, or is beset with sudden illness, financial loss or housing troubles. Even the strongest may feel frightened and abandoned without friends or relatives to turn to."

Survey Starts Americans to Buying Stocks

NEW YORK — Six thousand Americans looked at bank balances, their wallets, or the cash tucked away on the pantry shelf last week. Then they sat down and wrote letters saying: "Tell me more about the stock market."

The letters came from an engineer in Gary, Ind., a retired businessman in Cedar Falls, Ia., a widow in New York, a lawyer in Williamstown, Mass., a clerk in Houston, Texas, a schoolteacher in Tallahassee, Fla.

Some were wealthy, a few had recent financial windfalls, most of them had average incomes—well below $10,000 a year.

SINCE 1953, a million men and women like these have bought stocks and bonds for the first time.

They invested in the stock market because they wanted a better return on their capital, or because they were concerned about inflation or because they were influenced by the upward trend in the market in recent years.

"The first time any effort was made to find out how many people owned stocks was in 1953," said an officer of the New York Stock Exchange. "We were surprised and disappointed to learn through a Brookings Institution survey that only 6,490,000 people owned shares of publicly held corporations."

THE FINANCIAL community was concerned. It set out to find why so few Americans were stockholders. Financiers learned some startling facts in a poll conducted by Alfred Politz Research, Inc. The survey showed:

Only 23 per cent of the adult population could define common stock adequately. Only 24 per cent could describe the function of the New York Stock Exchange. Only half the adult population knew where they would find a stock broker.

BUT THE EXCHANGE learned also that American men and women, with no stock buying know-how and with limited guidance, are a surprisingly enterprising lot. "The mail that began to deluge stock exchanges and investment houses showed many people who had never invested before didn't understand stocks," a stock exchange officer said. "Some of the letters showed a little fear even."

But as Americans they knew they had the right to find out—and they did. A high percentage of those who asked about stocks eventually bought them.

New Automobile 'Grounding' Law Now in Effect

The new motor vehicle "grounding" law enacted by the Legislature in 1955 took effect Sunday as part of the State's effort to protect the motoring public from damages suffered in accidents that may be caused by financially irresponsible drivers and owners operating on the highways.

Paul Mason, State Director of Motor Vehicles, today issued a reminder to all motorists that failure to observe the accident reporting, financial responsibility, and security posting requirements of the California Vehicle Code may result in the suspension of a car owner's vehicle registration and license plates, as well as suspension of a driver's license. The new provision now in effect is the vehicle registration suspension feature, which also requires the owner to store the car at his own expense while under state suspension.

The director said the accidents that must be reported under this law to the Department of Motor Vehicles' Financial Responsibility office in Sacramento include all those in which any one person suffers injury, death, or property damage in excess of $100. The report must be made on forms provided by DMV and must be submitted within 15 days of the date of the accident. The drivers involved in the accident must make such reports, regardless of blame for causing it. These reports are in addition to any required by local police.

Mason said that drivers and owners may exempt themselves from the security posting and suspension provisions of the law by establishing their financial responsibility. The most common method of doing this is to show on the reporting form that the driver was insured under an auto liability insurance policy for at least $11,000 at the time of the accident. He said the department has prepared a leaflet explaining exemptions and other features of the amended law, available from all DMV offices.

Dealers, banks, and auto financing firms throughout the state have been notified of a new provision limiting transfer of title of a vehicle whose registration and plates have been suspended.

High Ceilings On Way Back

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — The newest trend in living rooms is pretty old — high ceilings made possible by split-level homes, a University of Illinois home management expert reports.

But there's a difference, too. All the rooms in old houses had high ceilings. The modern trend is to 15-foot ceilings in the living room and the "more intimate" heights of ceilings in other rooms, says Mrs. Alice Coleman, a home management instructor. Sky lighting or clear story windows help accentuate the high living room even more, she said.

About 13,000 waves were in the Navy's Hospital Corps in World War II.

Change in County Canal-Fencing Ordinance Asked

Supervisor George Berkey has told his fellow supervisors that he does not believe the present ordinance requiring the fencing of canals and water ditches in the unincorporated areas of the county is practical in the desert area.

At Berkey's suggestion the board asked the planning commission to give thought to revision of the ordinance.

"I've no objection to a study of the matter, but I'll guard closely any change in the requirements for fencing of these waterways in populated unincorporated areas," declared Supervisor Roman Warren.

Berkey said that to require the fencing of a water flood control ditch which may be used only once a year does not appear to be sensible. He said the banks of flood control ditches are usually high and moreover the county requirement sometimes results in a fence on one side of a ditch and none on the other.

"There's no point in fencing a flood control channel which has no water in it," said Supervisor William Jones. "Our intent was to protect children, and that I know we all want to continue to do."

Frost Warning Funds Sought

The county supervisors have received and filed Monday a request by the Coachella Valley Farmers Association at Thermal, that the county give financial support to the fruit frost warning service broadcast. They pointed out that they have already budgeted $3,500 for allocation to the program.

The farmers association said Sunkist has largely financed the service but that because of its general use it should no longer be financed primarily by one group of citrus growers.

Stephanie Bruton Gets Mention in Beauty Contest

Stephanie Bruton, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bruton of Calle San Antonio, received honorable mention in the Miss Southern California contest held at Oceanside Sunday. The judges admitted the decision was difficult between Stephanie and Orlanda Munyon of Panorama City for third place. The six finalists from which the winner and the two runners-up were to be chosen held their positions on the runway 10 minutes for the judges' decision. Miss Munyon was the final choice with Stephanie being the recipient of honorable mention because of the close competition.

Ricki Metz, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Metz of Cathedral City, also was an entry and was eliminated in the third group which was reduced to 12 for further judging.

EDITOR'S CORNER

By OLIVER B. JAYNES

ALWAYS A FIRST TIME

I have a bone to pick with the fellow who writes the column next to this—that man known as "Phat" who has been writing for The Desert Sun longer than I have. He put the hex on me last week—wondering if I had collected any traffic tickets while sojourning in North Carolina.

Most of the traffic violators in the Tar Heel state which he has been reading about are drag racers. One of them was given six months on the county road gang a few days ago. Just because I acquired a sport car recently Phat may have thought that I was getting a little foolish in my old age by going in for drag racing! He went on to explain how they are catching speeders with a new electronic device, which is absolutely correct.

In the past 25 years I have made about 20 transcontinental trips. In all this 150,000 miles of driving through most of the states, I have never been cited for a traffic violation—not until Phat put the hex on me. The day after his column appeared my record was broken. All he missed was the state. I was in Ohio at the time.

Up near the Pennsylvania border there's a little village, so small it isn't even on the maps, with a big name. The crossroad hamlet is known as Washingtonville, Ohio. Surprisingly enough, however, it rates a 35-mile zone and its police "department" is up-to-date enough to have acquired a radar device which was in operation the morning I rolled through the town at 50 mph. The very nice officer showed me the reading on the dial and explained just how the thing works. While demonstrating it, he picked up another unfortunate victim doing 55—and instructed both of us to follow him to the Mayor's office.

I was shocked to find his honor sitting behind the desk in his home-office clad only in an undershirt—from the waist up, that is. He wrote out a lengthy citation, affixed the official seal to it, and read it in a tone that made me think it must be a death warrant. My youthful companion in crime looked a little pale as the mayor-judge asked us how we wanted to plead. We both said: "Guilty."

At this point his honor explained that the maximum fine for speeding in Washingtonville, Ohio, was $50. I thought of all the nice things I could buy with $50 and noticed that my companion couldn't have looked more dejected if he had been given the death sentence.

After a pause that seemed like 10 minutes the Mayor said that he wouldn't like to be fined $50 and didn't think we would either. So he fined us $5 each—and said he hoped the next time he met us it would be under more pleasant circumstances. I paid my fine but my youthful highway acquaintance didn't have that much on him and the "judge" said he could mail it.

Just about 45 minutes after I was caught in the radar trap I walked out of the little "city hall" in Washingtonville, with roses all around it, and realized that my 25-year record had been broken.

All because Phat put the hex on me!

IT'S LOGICAL, ISN'T IT?

General Foods Corporation submits in a financial report two food figures of potentially priceless value to pressurized husbands. Presented to the wife as irrefutable syllogistic logic, they should spare him much installment debt. They are:

1. The food cost of a housewife using only precooked or processed foods is one-third higher than if she begins with the raw materials and does all the preparing and cooking herself.

2. But the use of "convenience" foods cuts her working time by three-fourths.

To our notion, from these premises clearly follow:

Conclusion A (try this one first): By buying only a little bit more prepared food, she can reduce cooking time by 100 per cent — and you can swap her cooking equipment for a bar and convert the kitchen into that rathskeller you yearn for.

Or, if she is not the coldly statistical type, surely she will accept:

Conclusion B: Since, with each new prepared food product marketed, she is doing less and less work in the kitchen, obviously she needs that long-nagged kitchen-modernization project less and less every day.

Well, you can try, can't you? M.L.H.

Uncle Sam, Competitor

(From the U.S. Chamber of Commerce News)

If you're in business, there's a good chance Uncle Sam is one of your competitors. And if you're not in business, you still must help to pay—through your taxes—for the government's business-type activities.

According to the Bureau of the Budget, the government actually is operating 19,771 commercial-industrial undertakings, with 266,000 employees and close to $12 billion of capital assets. These fall into more than 200 categories, including mining, manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade, farming, transportation, communication, services such as electric power, insurance, and so on and so on.

When Uncle Sam runs a business that private citizens could run just as well, he is adding unnecessarily to the cost of government. Further, he is losing revenue—for private business pays taxes while government business-type activities do not. Instead, they usually run at deficits.

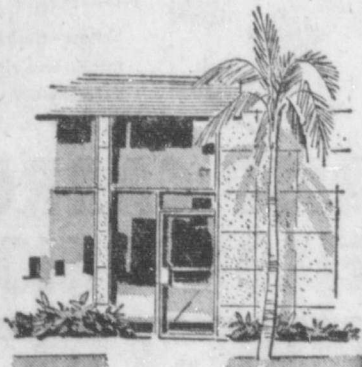

Last year, a start was made toward getting government out of business, and a substantial saving resulted. But the surface has only been scratched.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

Back in business again.

After three weeks of writing around the old Woodstock and I are reunited. This is a one-man typewriter. I stroke the keys and it purrs. Let anyone else try it and it snarls. The ribbon curls up like that stuff you use to wrap gift packages and all 45 keys jam.

NOT ONLY THAT, but all of my reference books—the World Almanac and Roget's—are here too. Plus that extra colored paper.

I have a utilitarian reason for using special colored paper. The linotype operators see it and say:

"H'mmm, Phat's copy. Let's leave that until morning when we are fresh."

Fresh in the morning? I've seen linotypers whose eyes would not focus until 10:38 a.m.

THIS COPY-PAPER is cut just right. I start at the top and when I get to the bottom, I know that there is just enough verbiage to fill the space allotted.

No counting of lines, deleting bright thoughts, to keep it from over-flowing.

Besides, this old Woodstock is cooperative. When it reaches 660 words, give or take a few, it knows the day's stint has been accomplished.

RED LIGHTS flash, bells ring. The shift key on the left side reaches in and produces a hooker of Rye and a lighted cigarette. The right shift key unfolds a Racing Form.

The Question Mark key winks.

OF COURSE, there's still some work to do. Many of my notes are still packed in boxes. By the time the vacation comes to an end, I'll have them all out, ready to pack again.

Writing around, as I have been for the last eight of these pieces, reminds me of the time when,

Congressional Report

By JOHN PHILLIPS

California, prior to the 1932 election, had 11 Congressmen. Representation is on a basis of population, so the 1930 census increased that number to 20, and reapportionment gave us a new Congressional District locally (with Orange and San Bernardino counties) and gave Riverside its own state Senator and Assemblyman.

Frank Miller, the city attorney for Banning, was an announced candidate for the Assembly spot. Your present Congressman was living with a growing family, in the dry air and sunshine of the desert, and thoroughly enjoying life. On Thursday morning, 48 hours before the end of the filing period, Miller announced that personal reasons made it impossible for him to run. Since his home was in Banning, a group of after a fire swept the office. I had an orange crate for a typewriter stand and an apple box for a chair.

The orange crate was handy. It had a shelf in the middle on which to keep copy paper, ash trays and what-nots. Mostly the latter.

I WISH to give credit, right now, for the eight compositions written on assorted typewriters. The Ontario Daily Report, Up-Land News, San Bernardino County Superior Court, department three, and Mrs. G's portable.

I used the latter twice when she wasn't home. I hate to see her wince.

ANOTHER THING I've learned so far on vacation. With all of these moves and the eight or nine heavy bags, never again will I begrudge a red cap's fee. I can understand now why they yell at the La Salle street station in Chicago: "Two bags to a man."

In fact, I still have a severe back-ache from watching Mrs. G. maneuver those bags.

I HOPE YOU had a happy Fourth yesterday. And a happy fifth today.

prominent Republicans met there that evening, determined to make him change his mind or to get someone to take his place.

The choice narrowed down to two men, solely I think, on a basis of availability on short notice. Harold Wiefels looked at Phillips and said, "John will have to run," and I looked at him and said, "Harold will make a much better candidate."

The group looked at us, and said, in effect, "A plague on both your houses, we will decide."

THEY PUT US out of the room, and an hour later they announced the decision: "Wiefels knows more about politics than Phillips will ever know, but Phillips knows more people. We choose Phillips." They also added the now-famous assurance, "It won't take much of your time, John, and I won't cost you anything."

For 24 years, it has taken all of my time, and the first 10 years or more exhausted not only all our income, but practically all our reserves. This is also something for the voters to consider on November 6th; success has never been illegal in the United States, as it has been in Russia, and an independent income can be of benefit to the people of the district, if used in their service.

I wasn't joking when I said the dogs got me into politics. The reason I "knew more people" was because I was the pinch-hitting speaker for every service club, or other organization, in a radius of a hundred miles. Phillips would always talk about dogs! And if I do say so myself, there isn't a more interesting subject; a statement which has been confirmed by writers and columnists for decades. Do you recall O. O. McIntyre's comments on that subject—and his Boston terrier?

Another reason I was selected, and others declined, was because I didn't know I had no chance to be elected.

Russia Has Phone Books, They Say

MOSCOW — It's been bruited about in America that Russia has no phone books.

Millions of phones; so the story goes, but not a phone directory.

I guess that's just some American propaganda. There are phone books. Why, I've even met people here while "Rushin' Through Russia" who claim they've seen some.

But they're not "easily available." New York attorney Morris Ernst asked the Russians why, while touring here, and one said, "Why should anyone have my telephone number? I'll give it to my friends. Why deprive me of this remaining bit of privacy?"

BUT "INFORMATION" is helpful — the only problem is, when you want to find out a number, "Information" asks you the person's age.

"I wonder what age has to do with it?" I asked when the Swift Family Wilson was trying to get a number.

"Everything," our interpreter and Intourist guide said. If I didn't know the man's age, maybe I didn't know him well enough to have his number. Besides, names are similar—would I want the 35-year-old Ivan Ivanovitch or the 72-year-old Ivan Ivanovitch?

"Gee, it must be tough getting a woman's phone number in Russia if you have to tell her correct age," suggested my B.W.

But it isn't. Not tougher than getting a man's, I mean. Russian women are seriously honest about their ages. A phone's more important to them than a phony age.

I FEEL QUITE comfortable here and have no fear of being followed. American tourists tell me they don't think they're watched much any more.

But the Russians thoroughly protect their leaders. The Americans here still talk of how Producer Mike Todd forgot to take his passport along to the May Day parade for identification. It was supposed to be checked a merely six different points.

"I can prove to you I'm Mike Todd," he said. He showed them his name put inside his jacket by his tailor.

"I even got my name on the wrappers of my specially made cigars!" He pointed that out. He didn't see the parade.

NOW THAT there's a capitalistic class—well, at least millionaires and Cafe Society developing—what'll be with tipping?

Our Intourist driver who took us from the airport to our hotel wouldn't accept a tip.

"Utopia!" I thought. At the hotel I gave our porter about a ruble a bag and he gave it back saying, "A ruble's not enough." Utopia, where art thou? They say bag-carrying is a service and you pay a set fee per bag. Just as our New York redcaps do—the Red redcaps do the same.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. Jule Styne wants Jerry Lewis for a B-way musical next season. . . . Sammy Davis Jr.'s honey, Cordy King, flew back to Chicago after visiting him here for five days. . . . Hecht and Lancaster asked Betty Hutton to star in their next, "The Comedian." (They'd change it to "Comedienne.")

Steve Allen's son Stevie, 12, danced with Kim Novak at the Harwyn party after the Allen TV'er. Steve said, "I want my boy to have all the advantages I never had." . . . NBC-TV's "Happy Birthday" show, with Barry Nelson, Betty Field and Tina Louise, was a comedy hit.

Barry Nelson will be the only American in the London version of the very American "No Time for Sergeants." . . . The Jack Kramers had their fifth child—without a doctor's bill. Jack bet the medic it'd be a girl—and own EARL'S PEARLS . . . Many a woman would be glad to have a split personality—as long as the other one did the housework. — Lois F. Pasley.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "When a man's bent on getting married, there's usually a girl around to straighten him out."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Hal Jackson described a constant drinker: "He's always drinking, either to cure a cold or to prevent one."

A couple of Sinatra fans were starting nasty rumor about Elvis Presley—they said his sideburns are false! That's earl, brother.

CHICAGO (UP)—Trans-Canada airlines here solved the problem of air-expressing a long metal tube to Toronto by unscrewing the plastic nosepiece in front of the pilot's seat and shoving the tube lengthwise through the cockpit to the cabin.

The nosepiece was refastened and the plane took off. Three days later came an urgent message from Toronto.

"We give up," it read. "How did you get it in?"

India's Trend to Prohibition May Breed Generation of Gangsters

BOMBAY—India may be growing a new generation of gangsters. This is the fear of many persons in this country, which is committed to a policy of prohibition.

The nation has not gone completely dry yet. Prohibition is making greater progress—legally—in some provinces than in others. But the number of "dry days" is increasing and India's leaders appear convinced they are on the right path.

NOT ALL of the people are equally convinced. There is a lot of complaining, and there is more and more bootlegging.

"India's leaders always are talking about developing 'cottage industry' in this country," one Bombay resident said. "Well, they have a new 'cottage industry' now—illegal cottage distilling."

Here is what this means, and why people here believe prohibition may bring a generation of gangsters to India:

1. THERE ARE many, many people in India with an extremely

Fire Hazard To Close Some Roads July 1

Forest fire danger in the mountain and foothill areas of the San Bernardino National Forest is approaching the critical period when every fire prevention precaution must be taken, stated Forest Supervisor Jim Jarvi today.

The San Bernardino National Forest encompasses some of the State's most valuable watershed and mountain recreation areas.

"These forest resources," observed Jarvi, "are vital to the constantly expanding needs of Southern California. The forest using populations of San Bernardino and Riverside County have more than doubled in the last decade, with a proportional increase in the value of the forest and watershed resource of the nation."

As a forest fire prevention measure certain of the steeper, chaparral covered mountain slopes within the National Forest are closed to use and entry during the high fire hazard summer months.

These extreme precautions, invoked by the regional forester in the public interest will go into effect July 1, 1956. Maps showing the high danger areas are available, free of charge at all ranger stations.

Dad Stops Phone To Stop Tirades

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. — When a subscriber called the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. to ask that his phone be disconnected for 30 days, Mrs. Grant Derfelt quickly asked whether he was taking a vacation.

"No, not a vacation; I'm going to be at home," the man answered.

"Nothing wrong with the service, I hope."

"No. The service is fine. I'm just getting tired of complaints."

"Complaints... what kind of complaints?" Mrs. Derfelt asked.

"Well, I'll tell you, I've got a teenage daughter, and she's all ways and forever on the phone. We're on a party line and I just get tired of having other people on the line call me up and complain."

"I warned my daughter, but she won't listen, so now I'm going to rip that phone right out for a month. Maybe this'll teach her."

981 ORDINANCE NO. 330

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, AMENDING ARTICLE 300 OF THE "PALM SPRINGS ORDINANCE CODE" WHICH SAYS: "ARTICLE 300. THE BOARD OF APPEALS FROM RULINGS OF THE BUILDING DEPARTMENT CONCERNING THE BUILDING CONSTRUCTION ORDINANCE PROVIDED BY CHAPTER 90 OF THE SAID 'PALM SPRINGS ORDINANCE CODE' AND REPEALING SECTION 204 OF THE 1955 UNIFORM BUILDING CODE AS ADOPTED BY ORDINANCE NO. 257 OF SAID CITY"

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. A new article numbered 300 is hereby added to the "Palm Springs Ordinance Code" to read as follows:

ARTICLE 300

§ 1. CREATION AND MEMBERSHIP. APPOINTMENT. There is hereby created a Board of Appeals. The Board shall consist of seven (7) members which shall be appointed by the Mayor of the City of Palm Springs. One of the several building trades. All members shall be appointed by the Mayor of the City of Palm Springs. Members shall be appointed by a majority vote of the City Council. Vacancies shall be filled by the Mayor of the City of Palm Springs in the same manner as the original appointment.

§ 2. ORGANIZATION. The Board shall elect its own Chairman who shall serve one (1) year. All meetings of the Board shall be public and shall be held at the call of the Chairman of the Board. The Board shall keep minutes of the proceedings before it showing the vote of each member upon every question or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact. The Board shall keep complete records of its official actions upon all proceedings before it, which said records shall be filed in the Building Department. Four (4) members of the Board shall constitute a quorum. All business matters before the Board shall be administered by the Chief Building Inspector, who shall act as Secretary for the Board and compile the necessary record provided by this Section.

§ 3. JURISDICTION OF THE BOARD. The Board shall have jurisdiction to grant or deny applications for variance from the regulations and requirements of the various building construction regulations provided by Chapter 90 of this Code. In addition the Board shall have jurisdiction to determine the validity of any order of the Building Department with regard to the use of alternate materials or construction.

§ 4. STANDARDS FOR EXERCISE OF JURISDICTION. The Board shall have jurisdiction to grant or deny applications for variance from the regulations and requirements of the building construction ordinances provided for by Chapter 90 of this Code provided the said Board finds that all of the three following set forth conditions exist:

§ 5. PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES. That the strict application of the provisions of the various building construction provisions of Chapter 90 of this Code would result in practical difficulties or hardship inconsistent with the purpose and intent of the said building provisions.

§ 6. EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES. That there are exceptional circumstances and conditions applicable to the type of construction or property involved, or to the intended use of the property, that do not apply generally to other properties in the same general neighborhood.

§ 7. NON-DETRIMENTAL EFFECT. That the granting of a variance will not be detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to persons or property, nor shall the variance be contrary to the intent or objectives of the said building construction ordinances.

§ 8. CONDITIONS. In granting a variance the Board may impose such conditions as are necessary to protect the public health, safety, morals and general welfare in accordance with the purpose and intent of the various building construction ordinances provided by Chapter 90 of this Code.

§ 9. VARIANCE APPLICATIONS AND HEARINGS. An application for variance or other relief within the jurisdiction of the Board shall be filed with the Building Department upon a form accompanied by such data and information as the Building Department may prescribe. Each such application shall be verified before a Notary Public by the applicant. Upon the filing of the said verified application the Building Department shall set the matter for public hearing before the Board and shall give notice of the time and place to the applicant. Postal card notice shall be sufficient.

§ 10. DECISIONS BY THE BOARD. Upon public hearing and receipt of a report or recommendations by the Building Department, the Board shall consider the application for variance or relief within the jurisdiction of the said Board and may approve or disapprove the said application, either in whole or in part. All rulings of the Board shall be reported immediately to the City Council. All decisions of the Board shall be final and shall be subject to the City Council; and, in absence of action by the City Council, shall become effective five (5) days after the last meeting of the City Council at which time the matter of variance or other relief was presented. Such determination by the Board or permission by the City Council or permitted to become effective, as provided in this section, shall be the authority for the Building Department to issue the permit or license that may be required.

§ 11. DISCONTINUANCE OF VARIANCE OR OTHER RELIEF GRANTED. If the variance granted by the Board or other relief within the jurisdiction of the Board is not used by the applicant within a period of six (6) months from the effective date, as provided by Section 90.5, or within the same period the conditions attached to the variance or ruling have not been complied with, then the Building Department shall give notice to the record owner of the property affected to appear at a time and place fixed by the Building Department and show cause why the decision or determination made by the Board should not be repealed or rescinded, as the case may be. After such hearing the Board may revoke the variance or other relief granted and the property owner or occupier affected shall have the right to appeal to the City Council in the same manner as decisions of the Board are reported to the City Council as provided in Section 90.5.

§ 12. ADDITIONAL DUTIES. In addition to the duties and jurisdiction heretofore in this article provided, the Board shall, from time to time, make recommendations to the City Manager for the amendment or repeal of existing building construction regulations.

§ 13. REPEAL. Section 204 of the 1955 Uniform Building Code, as adopted by Ordinance No. 257, is hereby repealed.

§ 14. PENALTIES. The provisions of Sections 90.1 through 90.14, inclusive, of the "Palm Springs Ordinance Code" are hereby adopted as the governing enforcement and penalty provisions applicable to the heretofore set forth regulations.

§ 15. The City Clerk is hereby ordered and directed to certify to the passage of this Ordinance and to cause the same to be published in the Desert Sun, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the City of Palm Springs. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after passage.

FLORIAN G. BOYD

is Mrs. John H. Harris. She and her husband, who live in Pittsburgh, are taking their vacation in Palm Springs.

Urbana Woman Here on Visit

Mrs. P. E. Henwood of Urbana, Ill., is spending two weeks visiting her son, Robert Henwood, and his wife at their home at 1127 North Calle Rolph. Several short trips are planned while she is here, including Lake Arrowhead and San Diego. Mrs. Henwood is touring the national parks while on her trip, and came here from visiting Mrs. George Goodale in Los Angeles.

Pageant of the Masters Opens at Laguna July 14

More than 200 artists, sculptors and craftsmen of Southern California will exhibit their creative output at the 21st annual Festival of Arts, July 14 through August 12, at Laguna Beach, California.

Six acres of Festival grounds becomes a cultural carnival for the 30 days and nights of one of America's most popular outdoor events. Demonstrations of arts and crafts, afternoon and evening performances of Don and Ivy's puppets, "Free for All" art classes, a Junior Art Gallery and a special exhibition of contemporary art sponsored by the Laguna Beach Art Association are among the many features of the 1956 community enterprise.

Each evening the Pageant of the Masters is presented under the stars in Irvine Bowl. Masterpieces of painting and sculpture take on intimacy and significance through the magic of living reproduction! Three entirely different programs are presented on successive nights, with reserved seats for all performances.

Show Features Mobile Furniture

Moving furniture's getting easier, even for the half-pint home-maker.

Offerings at the mid-season furniture market showed the new emphasis on mobility. More chairs, chests, tables, dressers, sofas and desks are being put on casters for easy moving.

Individual pieces — especially chairs — also have moving parts. Many of the new chairs whirl and swivel, recline and roll.

A leading furniture stylist, Adele Whitfield of the Kroehler Manufacturing Co. said, "These new chairs can do almost anything."

The preview of styles that will appear in the stores this fall revealed that rough-textured fabrics have maintained their popularity. Linen, a combination of linen and cotton, and the new nubby, washable nylon fabrics were featured in almost all showrooms. One of these new fabrics is carpet yarn frieze, a nylon and viscose blend pile, which has a coarse linen look and feel.

Color emphasis is on nature's colors — toast, brown, light green and gold.

Clarence Upson Young is executive producer, and program direction is by John Callan, Lyle Robertson and George Pletts. The orchestra is directed by Del Castillo and the featured narrators are Brainerd Duffield, David Iredell and Russ Potter.

Special make-up for the 300 models of the living paintings and statues is created by Max Factor of Hollywood.

The climax of the Laguna Beach outdoor program is the "Command Performances" of August 10, 11, and 12. These programs are made up of popular favorites selected by audience vote during earlier performances.

Illustrated literature on the Festival of Arts is available without charge from the Festival office, Laguna Beach.

Munholland Men Marry On Traditional Date, June 20

June 20 is a special date in the Munholland family, for that is the date on which the John G. Munhollands were married in 1906. Their son, John, was married on that date 27 years ago, and this summer the traditional late found grandson, Kim Munholland, carrying on the family custom by exchanging vows with Anne Hazelhurst.

The Munholland-Hazelhurst wedding took place in St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Long Beach.

The bride, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Doris Hazelhurst, wore a Caill original gown of white silk taffeta with Alencon lace at the scoop neckline. It was fashioned with a long torso waist and bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train, and her chapel veil cascaded from a lace and seedpearl crown. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, roses and lilies of the valley, and was given in marriage by her father.

Around 500 wedding guests attended the reception at Allen Center on Terminal Island.

The newlyweds have left on a six-month European tour and, upon their return, will reside in Long Beach until the bridegroom resumes active duty with the Air Force in late January.

Both are graduates of Wilson High School. The bride received a degree in political science from UC at Berkeley where she was affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. She has been a Bachelorette.

The bridegroom is a Stanford graduate and a Phi Beta Kappa. An enthusiastic yachtsman, he is active in Alamitos Yacht Club.

1954 Powder Puff Derby Winners Here Routing Race

While the Palm Springs Airport buzzed Sunday with large airplanes bringing in loads of Marines and their gear, the Cotton Clipper, a trim little two-place Cessna 140 from El Paso, Texas, nestled itself right down in the midst of all the military formality.

Flying the Cotton Clipper were two women pilots, Ruth G. Deerman and Ruby Campbell Hays, winners of the 1954 All Woman Transcontinental Air Race which is popularly known as the "Powder Puff Derby."

This year, the two racing pilots are acting as route surveyors for the race committee and will prepare the way for the 49 airplanes, pilots and co-pilots in the 1956 transcontinental dash. Mrs. Hays and Mrs. Deerman were met at the Palm Springs Airport by Eleanor Wagner, secretary of the Coachella Valley Chapter of Ninety-Nines.

The chapter has taken over the official duties at the Needles stop during the race and Eleanor Wagner and Faye Douthitt will be on hand there during the first two days of the race.

This year take-off will be from San Mateo, Calif., on July 7, the first stop being Bakersfield and the second Needles.

Previously, the all-woman event started from Southern California with Blythe as the first stop. The local chapter of Ninety-Nines have in the past officiated at the Clay-the stop. There is a possibility that many of the smaller airplanes will remain overnight at Needles due to the fact that the race is to be flown during daylight hours only, and since "safety" is the watchword for this famed race, flying in marginal weather is taboo.

From Bakersfield and Needles the entrants will progress eastward by way of Prescott, Winslow, Albuquerque, Amarillo, Wichita, Columbia, Ft. Wayne, and finally, Flint, Michigan.

The 2,366-mile race will mark the 10th Annual All-Woman Transcontinental Air Race (AWTAR). The Race has always been sponsored by the Ninety-Nines, an International Organization of Licensed Women Pilots. The organization was formed by Amelia Earhart and 98 other women pilots in 1929. The contestants will be racing for a $2,500 purse to be divided among the first five places.

Herberts Fete Joe Frosatts Before Trip

Europe bound Phyl and Joe Frosatt were entertained Saturday night at the home of Bettye and Monte Herbert in Los Angeles. The party went to George and Gretchen Barraclough's restaurant where there was a table decorated with a miniature Eiffel tower.

Guests included Phyl and Joe Frosatt, Nellis and Al Hunt, B. J. and Belmont San Chez, Emma and Ben Gale, Margaret and Sol Manasse, Gretchen and George Barraclough, and George Shaw.

Villagers

The Edward Canby family left Saturday to spend the summer in Laguna Beach. Canby, well-known Village photographer and painter, plans to spend some time painting and fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown, an executive member of the Ranch Club, and daughter, Judy, have just returned from the Hawaiian Islands where they spent two weeks at the Hawaiian Village.

Kurt Kasznar, star of the New York stage show "Waiting for Godot," and his wife, professionally known as Leora Dana, TV actress were celebrating their fourth wedding anniversary at the Biltmore Garden room Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Welmos of 1081 E. Alejo Rd. are vacationing at the Hotel Monte Cassino in Mexico City. They will motor to Taxco and Tepoztlan.

On the afternoon of the Fourth of July, Emma and Ben Gale held open house at their lovely Oakmont Drive home. All of the Palm Springs contingent who had not fled to La Jolla were present.

Miss Frank Married in Los Angeles

Culminating a high school romance, Mona Leda Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Frank of Palm Valley, will become the bride of George Harrington Oswald in a formal evening wedding at the Plymouth Congregational church in Los Angeles on July 6. A reception will follow in Mesa Hall, adjacent to the church.

In the wedding party will be Diane Urban, maid of honor; Barbara Kresge and Kathleen Frank, sister of the bride, bridesmaids; Taylor Bunbrough, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, best man, and Bruce Scott and Leo Lewis, ushers.

The bridegroom is with the Eighth Army Engineer Corps, stationed at Colorado Springs, and leaves August 8 for Germany. When he leaves, the bride will return to Los Angeles until housing arrangements can be made, when she will join him in Germany. After completion of his Army service, the young couple plans to make their permanent home in Palm Valley.

Trails Group Holds Gymkhana

San Jacinto Mountain Wilderness and Trails Association sponsored a gymkhana on July Fourth at the Stable Arena in Idyllwild. Beginning at 9 a.m., teenagers and juniors rode English equitation, western pleasure (teenage) junior bending, western, egg and spoon, and teenage trail riding prior to a parade at 1 p.m.

BILLIONS AT WORK!
$9,521,617,505.02! These are the total resources of our bank as shown in our mid-year statement of condition dated June 30. Through the branch here, and through our branches everywhere in California, these billions of dollars are put to work. They make possible our loans to business and industry, agricultural loans, home loans—to buy or build, improve and modernize—and Timeplan loans of every type. These are indeed dollars at work. Building California... serving you!

SANTA CLAUS IN JULY?
No, it isn't sleigh bells you hear coming from our bank, but it might as well be. It's the tinkle of adding machines adding more than $35 million in interest to our customers' savings accounts. This happens every six months, you know. We add full bank interest to the savings folks are building up in our bank as emergency funds, and for worthwhile goals like college educations and new homes. Another reason why it pays to save at B of A!

WE SALUTE
Members of the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce, who spearheaded the campaign responsible for the successful July 4 celebration last night at the Polo Grounds. Other civic groups which joined the JayCees in this sponsorship also deserve credit for their civic spirit.

Hathaway-Buick Beaten by Junior Police

HATHAWAY-BUICK BRAVES, until Monday night the undefeated leaders of the Little League, were beaten by the Junior Police Monday night, recording their first defeat of the season. (Anderson Photo).

Cameron Stars Win First Game in Double Header

By LINDSAY NIELSON
The Hathaway-Buick Braves, undefeated until Monday night were beaten by the Junior Police in one of the big upsets of the league series.
The defensive drive was headed by Tommy and Johnny Olivera of the Junior Police, who teamed up as a hitting and pitching team that kept the Braves on the run and accounted for the final score of 7-4.
In previous games the Braves had rolled up tremendous scores over their opponents, and twice before beat the Junior Police, 11-4 and 16-3.
The Junior Police led from the first inning through the last.
Score by Innings:

Club 23-14. The Junior Police beat the Cameron Stars 15-3.
The first game was a one-way contest. The Junior Police led from the beginning to the end, giving them a standing of six games won and two lost, compared with the Cameron Stars' one win and seven losses.
The second game between the Hathaway-Buick Braves and the Boys Club recorded the first casualties of the league. Perry Paul was hit solidly in the temple, but was able to finish the game. Carlos Reyes, the first baseman, had a collision with the catcher, and this kept him from finishing the game. Greg Hough kept in the play after being hit a smashing blow on the right leg by the ball.
The Boys Club played a good game, and held the lead in the first inning, but by the end of the third were trailing by eight points, and though they played hard, the game ended 23-14 in favor of the Braves.
Score by Innings:
